CENTURY CLUB MEMBERSHIP
DRIVE BEGINS MAY 13TH

The University of Montana Century Club will kick off its annual membership drive in Missoula on Tuesday, May 13, with a special breakfast for all participants at the Holiday Inn, beginning at 7:30 a.m. Century Club president Bob Small, together with drive chairman Earl Sherron, announced that a goal of 1450 members has been set for this 25th anniversary year.

A concentrated effort will be made during the week to secure new century club members, while the effort to renew past members will continue throughout the summer months. Last year's Century Club roster tallied 1350 members.

For further information regarding Century Club membership, contact: Al Kempfert, Century Club office, located in the Harry Adams Field House, or call 243-5331. Membership is open to the general public.
